

87th Annual Scholastic Art Awards

Dear Patron of the Arts,

Again this year the Art Machine is organizing and sponsoring the Regional Scholastic Art Awards. This is a program that praises the fine work of area schools and students. Northern Kentucky, Southeastern Indiana and Greater Cincinnati Schools have a long history of artistic achievement. Many area students have won Scholastic Awards and many have won scholarships through this program.

As with other organizations, there are expenses. Last year, the local organization published a program, ARTICKLE, listing all the awarded students, teachers and schools. ARTICKLE also published numerous photos of the winning art, which were sent to New York for the National Competition. ARTICKLE was very well received by Students, Teachers and Parents.

This year we are hoping to sell some advertising space in the ARTICKLE to help off set some of the expenses associated with organizing the project, publishing the ARTICKLE, sponsoring the exhibit and shipping the winning pieces to New York.

ARTICKLE is distributed free. It will be distributed as last year through participating schools and during the exhibit in the MarX Gallery at 520 Madison Ave. in Covington, Kentucky, starting on February 5th and running through February 20th. The Award Ceremony will be held at 7pm on February 19th at the Northern Kentucky Convention Center. Last year approximately 1500 people were in attendance.

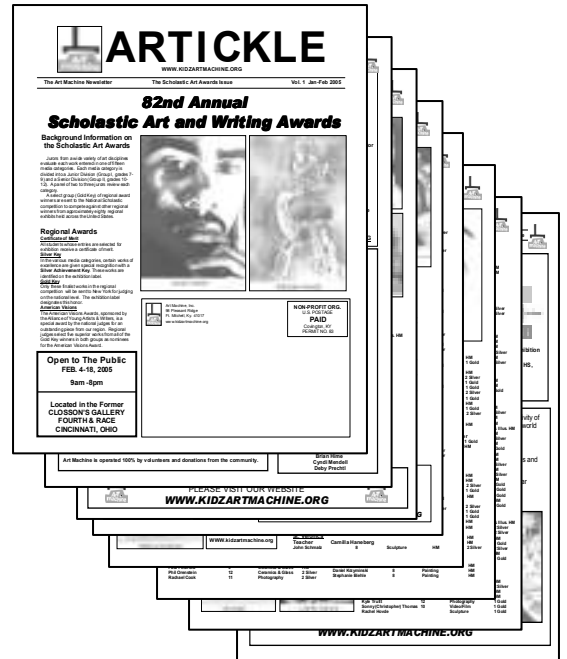

We plan to distribute 3000 copies of the ARTICKLE this year.
